

What is a good leader?

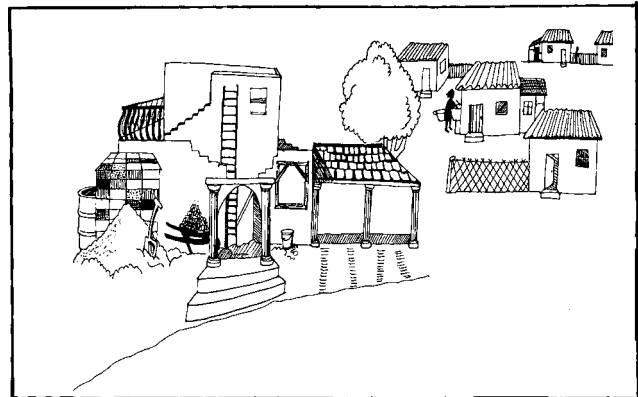

A good leader needs to have shown integrity

A good leader uses fair processes

A good leader does not use their status to exploit people

A good leader considers the needs of the community

A good leader is in touch with the needs of the community

A good leader does not allow 'power struggles' to affect their leadership