Go and Register to Vote in order to avoid being disappointed on Election Day.

What do I receive after I register? The Constituency Registrar will issue you with a confirmation slip.

Do I have the Right to Complain? Yes. If you believe that you have been wrongly refused registration as a voter, you can lodge a complaint with ZEC. ZEC has offices in the Districts and Provinces throughout Zimbabwe ready to assist you. Register to make a difference. Do not be left out.

Why Inspect the Voters Roll during Registration?
- Voters need to check whether their details are correct.
- Voters need to register new addresses if they have changed residence.
- Relatives are encouraged to register the deaths of their deceased relatives so that their names may be removed from the voters' roll.
- Those with relatives who have died and are without death certificates are advised to approach the Registrar General's office in order to acquire death certificates for the purpose of removing the said deceased from the voters' roll.

You Will Not Vote If You are not Registered
